

Company Profile

iesy GmbH & Co. KG

iesy serves as a systems supplier for Embedded Computing. Driven by our passion for technology we have been developing electronic systems since 1966. With a team of experts in soft- and hardware development, manufacturing and device testing, we are an ideal outsourcing partner for the development, prototyping, series production and maintenance of customer-specific electronic products. This is simple. This is iesy.

Strengths

- ▶ acting solely as an OEM supplier
- ▶ reliable & flexible outsourcing partner
- ▶ high-precision processes
- ▶ cost-effective structures
- ▶ fast & direct communication
- ▶ first-class technological expertise
- ▶ cost-optimized series supplier
- ▶ quality made in Germany

Industries

iesy provides solutions for various fields of application, such as:

Clientele

iesy works as an OEM supplier for electronics and has companies from different industries and various sizes among its customers, ranging from start-ups and SMEs to global corporations.

Industrial

IoT Gateway

Qseven based customer-specific IoT gateway for cloud-based ERP software solution with SAP HANA based on embedded NUCT™. All services from consulting, project planning and prototyping up to hardware and software development, commissioning and series production by iesy.

BeagleCore™ Module

Miniature open-source computer module for industrial applications, software compatible with the popular BeagleBone® Black. Suitable for innovative, cost-sensitive projects. Also available for extended temperature range.